

FEDERAL STATE
BUDGETARY SCIENTIFIC INSTITUTION
INSTITUTE FOR AFRICAN STUDIES
OF THE RUSSIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES

AFRICA: COLONIZERS' UNPAID DEBT

Moscow 2023

A research publication

Approved for publication by the academic council of the Institute for African Studies of the RAS

Executive editor and lead author

I. Abramova, corresponding member of the RAS, Doctor of Economy, professor

Editorial board:

I. Abramova, T. Denisova, L. Fituni

Authors:

I. Abramova, T. Deich, T. Denisova, A. Elez, L. Fituni,
V. Gribanova, S. Kostelyanets, O. Kulkova, V. Shubin,
A. Urnov, V. Usacheva, S. Volkov, N. Zherlitsyna

Reviewed by:

T. Gavristova, Doctor of History, professor
K. Pantserov, Doctor of Political Science, professor

Africa: Colonizers' Unpaid Debt / ed. by I. Abramova. – Moscow: Institute for African Studies of the RAS, 2023. – 112 p.

ISBN 978-5-91298-297-2

The book is a concise yet comprehensive account of European colonialism in Africa from its roots in the slave trade to modern forms of neocolonial exploitation. Facts are provided to highlight the role of original, “classical,” and current forms of colonial exploitation in Europe’s accelerated economic development and accumulation of wealth. Considering their status as victims of exploitation in the global economy and a need to break free from the shackles of new colonial dependence, Russia and Africa are finding themselves in the same boat not only due to Western pressure on their political and economic sovereignty and a shared desire to get rid of old and new forms of colonialism. They are also united by common goals in establishing a just world order where every country and nation can enjoy dignity and have a status that ensures a favorable outlook for their independent development.

ISBN 978-5-91298-297-2

© Institute for African Studies of the RAS, 2023

© Authors, 2023

© RT, cover design, 2023